CELEBRATE MID-AUTUMN FESTIVAL
WITH EXQUISITE MOONCAKES

This year, JW Marriott Bangkok's award-winning Man Ho Chinese Restaurant unveils a stunning mooncake collection that not only celebrates the Mid-Autumn Festival but also pays homage to the enduring beauty and symbolism of traditional Chinese painting, fostering a sense of cultural connection.

The exquisite mooncake box invites you to enter a world inspired by these timeless works. Imagine a gentle stream, like flowing calligraphy, winding its way around majestic mountains, symbolizing the harmony between stillness and change. Swallows, messengers of good luck and family togetherness, flit through the air, while bluebirds, with their vibrant feathers, add a touch of joy and prosperity to the scene. A magnificent golden tree, rendered in elegant brushstrokes, stands at the center, its branches adorned with delicate Osmanthus flowers, their sweet fragrance a symbol of good luck and abundance.

The color palette of the box shimmers with auspicious gold and warm yellow tones, reflecting the joy and prosperity associated with the festival. The unique hexagonal shape further emphasizes harmony and balance, echoing the themes explored in Chinese art.

Within this elegant box lies a delightful assortment of mooncake flavors, each handcrafted with the finest ingredients to capture the essence of the season. Indulge in the rich sweetness of Monthong durian with egg yolk, the earthy elegance of lotus seeds with egg yolk, the crunch of whole grains and nuts with egg yolk, and the classic comfort of red bean with egg yolk.

The table is set with several mooncakes on a wooden tray, a white teapot, and a small white cup. The background is dark and textured.

As you gather with loved ones under the luminous glow of the full moon, let this Man Ho mooncake box be a powerful symbol of the enduring traditions and rich cultural heritage that bind us together. Celebrate family, harmony, and the promise of good fortune to come with JW Marriott Bangkok.
